person at a time!*

If you can't go to the snow-capped Andes to hear Quichua musicians playing panpipes, or dance the night away to festive mariachis in Guadalajara, the Taste of Latin America celebration offers you the best of the hemisphere, right here in Georgia. Join us for an outdoor dinner celebration to benefit the Center for Mediation, Peace, and Resolution of Conflict. Enjoy live musical and dance entertainment from various countries, sample zesty dishes from all around Latin America prepared by local chefs, and relax in the beautiful setting of tranquil Cane Creek Farm. Past years' events were attended by up to 120 people from over 18 different countries, raising thousands of dollars for peacebuilding work in the U.S. and Latin America. Held on the eve of the U.N.-recognized International Day of Peace, this promises to be a lot of fun—join us this year for a great time for a worthy cause!
